

FREE SPORTS MEDICINE SEMINAR

Presented by

ONS Foundation for Clinical Research & Education, Inc.

Tuesday, September 14, 7 - 9 p.m.

Sports Concussion: Know the Facts!

Concussion management strategies for Middle & High School Athletes and the (High School) ImPACT test

SPEAKERS: Scott Simon, MD - Neurosurgeon and
Peter Falla, ATC - Greenwich High School
Athletic Trainer & Concussion Management
Coordinator/ImPACT Test Supervisor

WHO: Middle and high school athletes, their parents, coaches & trainers

WHERE: OGRCC, Eastern Greenwich Civic Center, Old Greenwich

FREE ADMISSION- but registration requested

CALL TO REGISTER: (203) 637-3659 or email: ogrcc.execasst@yahoo.com

CONCERNS ABOUT CONCUSSIONS and the brain health of contact-sports athletes are being raised on high school and college campuses across the country.

This seminar is designed to help educate youth athletes and adults about the signs, symptoms, and treatment of concussion.

Come learn what you should know about concussion, the latest guidelines for concussion management, and about the ImPACT testing program.

WWW.ONS-FOUNDATION.ORG

 ONS FOUNDATION
FOR CLINICAL RESEARCH & EDUCATION, INC.

 ImPACT®